'At the Expense of the Public': The Sign Painters ...

The Sign Painters' "ridicule on exhibition" was accused of satirizing this national project, a charge, however, which its organizers contested. Thornton explained in the exhibition's catalogue, "They are not in the least prompted by any mean jealousy, to deprecate the merits of their brother-artists. Animated by the same public spirit, their sole view is to convince foreign-ers, as well as
